Kirkland Estate Agents are proud to present to the market this delightful one bedroom lower traditional apartment. Presented with a whole lot of benefits including its very own entrance & garden.

The property has accommodation over one level. From the entrance hallway you'll find spacious hallway with storage, large lounge, fresh fitted kitchen, lovely bedroom with fitted wardrobes and good sized bathroom.

This attractive property also boasts gas central heating, double glazing, and large communal garden to rear as well as private garden and storage area.

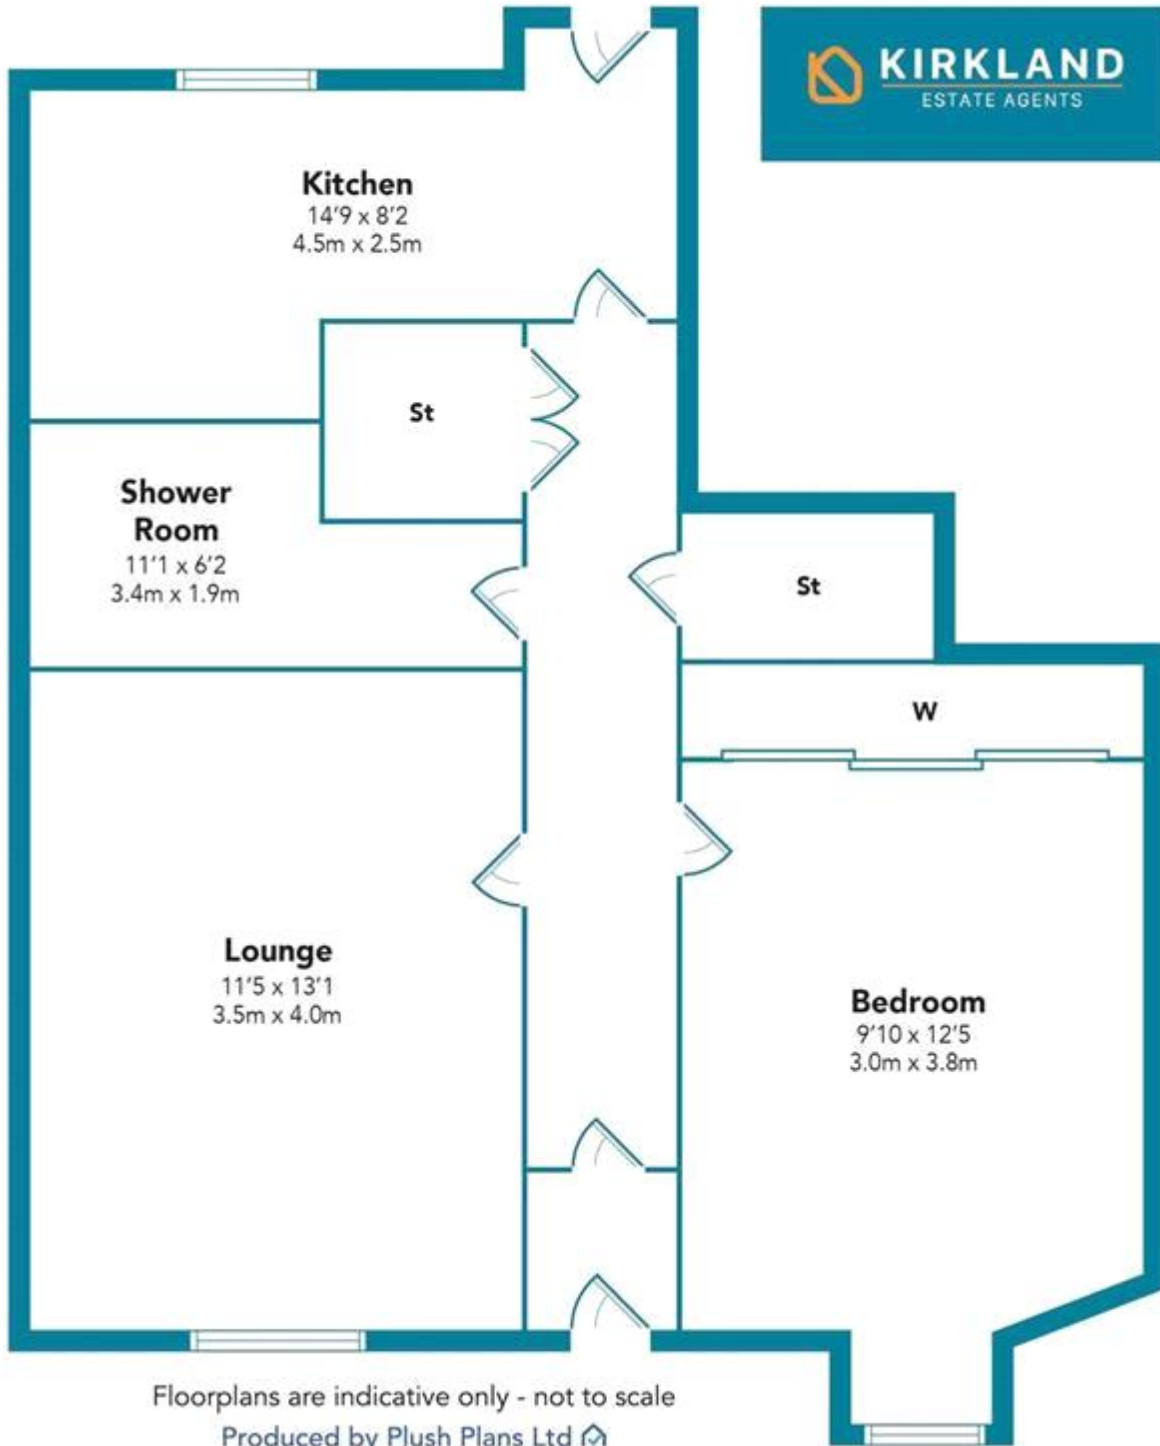

Situated in town centre, this property will appeal to the discerning buyer wishing to purchase their first home or downsize to something more manageable.

Close to local shops, schools and within easy walking distance of Coatbridge town centre, local train and bus routes and the M8 motorway can be accessed within minutes.

The popular tourist attractions of Heritage museum and Drumpellier Country Park are located nearby. We envisage much interest in this property and would therefore recommend early viewing.
