The plot is situated in a convenient central location to the amenities offered by the town of Fauldhouse including easy access to public transport, shopping and good commuting routes. The area has undergone a large amount of new development over the past several years and hosts its own train station delivering a frequent and reliable service to both Edinburgh and Glasgow. This villa is located on a generously sized corner plot enclosed behind an ornamental brick wall with three sets of double-hung decorative hand-made wrought-iron gates boasting exterior landscaping, a mono-bloc driveway with ample off-street parking for several vehicles and the rear garden is a perfect spot to relax and entertain.
